Holiday Deadlines

DEADLINE FOR THIS WEEK

Because of the holiday this coming Monday, the deadline for news and classified ads for this week only will be Friday, May 24th, at 5 P.M.

200 years explodes from the barrel. Left bottom, the newly organized redcoats parade in Fairhaven. Top right, the "British" march again at Fort Phoenix watched by a huge crowd. Right center, the Independent Light Dragoons of Tiverton play at the muster.
Right bottom, the 4th Old Dartmouth Militia fire their flintlocks in a cloud of white smoke.

Cannons Roar Once More

FIRST NAVAL BATTLE REENACTED

Hundreds of people dotted the rock ledge which is crowned by the old stone bastion of Fort Phoenix to witness the second chapter of a revival of an historic event. The very first naval encounter of the Revolutionary War took place within a cannon shot of the fort and because of the vision and dedication of a group of Fairhaven people led by Donald Bernard "you are there". Three sailing vessels maneuvered smartly in the stiff breeze, musket fired and cannon reports echoed across the water and puffs of smoke appeared as broadsides were exchanged. The battle, easily seen with the naked eye, featured such realistic touches as colonials and redcoats being shot and tumbling into the sea. Large volumes of smoke pouring from the defeated vessels signaled the victory at sea for the motor sailer "Seven Bells" which had the role of the colonial ship. This naval battle followed a muster in the center of town of the host, the First Phoenix Garrison, the newly formed British contingent and visiting historic units from Massachusetts, Rhode Island and New York.

Studds Holiday Speaker

Rep. Gerry E. Studds, D-Mass., will march in New Bedford and will speak in Mattapoisett to commemorate Memorial Day, Monday, May 27th.

Studds will march in the New Bedford Veterans' Parade beginning at 11:15 Monday morning. At 2:30 P.M. the Congressman has been asked to be guest speaker at the Mattapoisett Town Library on Barstow Street.

PLAN VETOED

Mr. R. Floyd Empey wrote a letter (Presto Press May 1, page 12) outlining a plan for a 5-day elementary school operation with expanded hours on a 4-day pupil week. This would enable the present elementary school building to operate without overcrowding and without expanding the buildings. Mr. White said that his committee was formed and is charged with building a school. He said that any initiative on Mr. Empey's suggestion would have to come from the School Committee.

TOWN CAN LEASE CLASSROOM SPACE

Leonard Perry, Town Counsel, has rendered an opinion that Mattapoissett could lease classrooms for use by the elementary school. He said that contracts could be made for periods not exceeding 5 years. Mr. George White, chairman of the Elementary School Building Committee, said that this body sought the ruling.

A Time for Heroes

IN MEMORY 1974

Editorial, D.C.J.

Frequently now, we read that our country has no heroes. Pity these cynical spokesmen who regard Memorial Day as another 3-day weekend. Heroes are legion in our good earth and they rest there in neat rows. Some are returned from our wars. All of them are from our roots. We have more than our fair share of heroes and will continue to.

The rhythm of life peaks and valleys. The tide swells and ebbs. Human emotion heats and cools. We are children of the earth and respond in kind. Out of the honor of a bloody Civil War battlefield came a day of calm.

The Confederate custom of decorating the graves of their dead on "Decoration Day" spread throughout the nation, north and south alike, as a day to honor all of our dead.

Memorial Day is, therefore, a unique American holiday in the original meaning of the word - holy day. Of all days, this one is the meeting of present and past. Memorial Day coincides with the Spring earth bursting with color, fragrance and renewal. The military trappings of the ceremony stem from its origin and from the order faithfully executed since the Civil War by a committed string of patriots. A wider significance is felt by all who participate. There is a formal address but to the gathering there are other voices in the wind. The mind gathers back the people who shaped our lives - taught us with love, confidence and hope. These are the heroes that fill the mind and refresh the spirit. The turf is crisp underfoot, the flowers are vivid at the graves and for a period we are in touch with our dead. This is peace. If it were possible to spread this one day of the year to be observed in other countries, we could assure the world of one day of peace.

Memorial Day - day to stand with body warmed by the sun, with both feet planted firmly on the ground and with spirit in another place in communion with people from our past. Many times during the busy year the spark of memory brings them back but never so clear as this time, this place, this day of memory.

Young musicians will play and march as will old soldiers, rifles will crack in salute, a wreath of flowers will rise upon a wave but the greatest salutation of all will

MEMORIES OF CARL DUPONT 1910-1974

He was unto himself a rare source of life and fun whenever he entered your company. He was the spark who ignited the group with his quips that hit so painlessly close to home. He was a perfectionist yet with understanding and patience.

The difficult part of writing a memorial tribute comes with the recognition of the fact that the man whose memory is so strong and alive with us will not be part of the creation of future memories.

Those from the past, however, will last a lifetime and increase in value as the years go by. Carl Dupont was a man for all seasons....a man for all people --- he will be

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

I would like to take this opportunity to publicly thank George Evans and the members of the Flood Insurance Committee for their many hours of hard work, and presentation of the Permanent Flood Plan at the annual Town Meeting. Also, a word of thanks to the voters who attended and spoke in favor of the article.

The permanent Insurance Plan will, I am sure, benefit all the taxpayers of Mattapoisett in the future, but most of all those living in the Flood Plain area.

Although the Summer residents could not show their support by voting at the Town Meeting, they do appreciate the efforts of George Evans and his committee.

Junior Grange

The meeting of Mattapoisett Junior Grange was held last Friday night with the worthy master Christine Hubbard presiding.

Honored guest was Selectmen William Hubbard.

After a short business meeting Mr. Hubbard was presented by the lecturer, Tracy Bigam. Mr. Hubbard reminisced a little on the days when he was a member of the Junior Grange, then spoke on town government, explaining the duties of the Selectmen and giving in rotation some of each department's duties. It was a very informative talk and during the question period it was amazing to hear the questions of very much interest asked Mr. Hubbard. He was very pleased at the interest they displayed. He invited them at some future meeting of the Selectmen to witness how it is conducted. I wonder if Mattapoisett Grange is helping to train another future Selectman. We have another past Junior Grange member, Robert Silveira, who is on the Board of Selectmen, and one more, Kenneth Wood, who is serving as Selectman in Fairhaven.

EXHIBITION OF PAINTINGS

An exhibition of paintings by Joseph Alexander is on display at the Marion Art Center May 19th through June 9th. Mr. Alexander is showing new acrylic landscapes and figure studies. The recent landscape paintings are a continuation of the child's dream theme. The artist has been developing this theme for the past three years. Mr. Alexander, in commenting on his work, said that the idea of the inquisitive young man searching for the true meaning of his existence is the essence of his paintings. He went on to say that the composition and the color scheme of the painting are of equal importance to the theme of the work. Mr. Alexander has included many images that relate to our past. Such images as the balloons, the toy boats, castles, create an overall feeling of calmness and tranquility.

The figure studies are representative of man in search of his role in society. Beautiful wallpaper designs are present in his figure paintings. A restful calmness prevails.

SENIOR CITIZENS' MEETING

The Mattapoissett Seniors held a meeting Monday, May 13th, at the American Legion Hall, the drop-in center.

There was a very large attendance and new members were introduced. The big event was the beautiful trip to the romantic Portugal and Algarve. They were the latest slides of Mr. and Mrs. Manuel Roza taken a few weeks ago. It was very interesting to hear Mrs. Hazel Roza clearly narrate with the assistance of Mr. Roza as he projected.

As usual there were delicious and plentiful refreshments, much socializing and a pleasant day enjoyed by all.

The trip to Framingham Shoppers' World was another happy day and memory. The day was clear, bright and warm. The tulips were in bloom and everything was just beautiful. There were many interesting shops and restaurants. The group was very congenial and it was so nice to travel with Seniors from out of town and form new acquaintances. It was so nice to have a handsome and gallant

Rochester Seniors

The second anniversary meeting of the Senior Citizens' Club of Rochester was held on May 14 at the Rochester Women's Club with Mr. Samuel Spindler presiding.

It was a delightful surprise to find the clubroom decorated with "Happy Birthday" balloons, and baskets and vases of fresh cut flowers. Colorful flower centerpiece arrangements, made by Mrs. Irene George, were placed on all tables with individual baskets filled with candy for each member.

Entertainment by Mr. Fred Wilson of Wareham at the piano and songs by Mrs. Wilson who also led the members in community singing was enjoyed by all.

Table games were played and prizes won.

The social hour and refreshments served by Mrs. Evelyn Benner, assisted by Mrs. Ruth Davoll, Mrs. Lydia Spindler and Mrs. Blanche Ouellette was the perfect ending to a gay and festive afternoon.

Plans were made for the June meeting. A second anniversary luncheon will be held at the Tamarack Restaurant on Monday, June 10th, at 1 P.M. All paid-up members are invited to attend as guests of the club (the club will pay for the luncheon). Reservations must be made. The restaurant must have an accurate number of the people that they are to serve. Members who attended the May meeting made their reservations. Paid-up members who did not attend the meeting and would like to attend the luncheon must make their reservations before the deadline date June 1st by calling 763-2142. If unable to attend after having made reservations, please notify Mrs. Evelyn Aiken. Following the luncheon, weather permitting, the meeting will be held at Mrs. Aiken's pine grove, or at the Rochester Women's Club.

Its length will depend on the number of people that sign up for it. There will be three groups: women's doubles, men's doubles and mixed doubles which will be open to novice, intermediate and advanced players. It is preferable to obtain your own partner. However, if this is impossible the committee will try to find one for you. There will be an entrance fee of $5.00 for each family. 'Sweet Adelines'

Ladies, are you interested in making new friends, associating with congenial women, enjoying an occasional fun weekend, bringing joy to shut-ins, your family and friends? Well, look no further. The ideal way is by singing with the New Bedford Chapter of Sweet Adelines. Our membership is now open to any woman who enjoys singing and can carry a tune, no professional training necessary. Sweet Adelines are homemakers, career women and professional business women. You'll love learning four-part harmony, Sweet Adeline style. There's no other sound that brings the thrill of "ringing" a perfect barbershop chord.

On Tuesday, May 28th, at 7:45 P.M. the group is holding a gala open membership night at St. Paul's Methodist Church, 880 Kempton Street, corner of Rockdale Avenue,
